

OSWEGO COUNTRY CLUB

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

GENERAL:

- All applicants for membership shall be proposed by a current Oswego Country Club (OCC) member in good standing.
- Applications shall be signed by the applicant, and spouse if applicable. Said signature shall thereby pledge the applicant to abide and be bound by the Constitution, By-Laws and rules of the Club.
- Each application must be signed by the proposing member, and endorsed (seconded) by the signature of two (2) other OCC members in good standing.
- Applications must be submitted to the Board for consideration, accompanied by written statement of introduction as well as a letter of recommendation from the proposing member.

APPLICANT INSTRUCTIONS:

- The enclosed application must be completed in its entirety (including all requested information for both spouses and all children, if applicable), and signed.
- TYPE OF MEMBERSHIP ... Oswego Country Club has golfing and non-golfing membership classifications. The golfing classifications are available in single or family types, depending on the applicant's circumstances. Fees and definitions of membership classifications are attached.
- OPTIONS ... Options such as locker rental, club-storage and practice range may be selected at time of application or upon acceptance.
- The completed application is to be submitted to Oswego Country Club through your proposing member.

PROPOSER INSTRUCTIONS:

- The proposing and seconding members are required to sign the application form and the proposer shall write a letter of introduction / recommendation for the applicant.
- The proposing member shall be responsible to ensure that the application is complete and that the applicant meets all the requirements for membership and is fully acquainted with his/her financial obligations to the Club.
- The application and accompanying letters are to be submitted to the Club office by the proposing member.
- Should the applicant be accepted into membership, the "Proposer" shall be responsible for acquainting the new member(s) with all club procedures and rules, as well as introducing the member(s) to the PGA Professional.
